FOUND IN RIVERMissing from his home in Winona since April 12 the body of John Gostomaz was found floating in the river near Homer yesterday by a fisherman.Mr. Gostomaz left home on the morning of April 12 and went up the river after drift wood. As nothing was heard from him the thought became apparent in the minds of his relatives that some accident had befallen him. Search was at once begun and a few days later one of the oars used by the unfortunate man was found floating opposite Winona and the other was discovered a short distance above the Burlington draw bridge.Upon the recovery of the cars, Anton Gostomaz, a son of the man, offered a reward of $25 for the recovery of the body of his father, no doubt then remaining as to his fate.Search has been kept up but it was not until yesterday that the body was recovered.
At the time of the drowning Mr.
Gostomaz wore a pair of high rub-son said that his father was a good the Winona board of trade appeared before the Minnesota railway and warehouse commission and argued against the adoption of the new rates.

The chief spokesman for the Winona delegation was Attorney L. L.

ject to a reduction in rates, but did object to a reduction that would change the readjustment and make it impossible for Winona jobbers to meet twin city competition. The rates from the twin cities and Win-

PART OF SWINDLEInvolved Case in Which it is Charged Higgins Was CrookedCharging that the receipt was "doctored" in addition to being a different sort of an instrument that it purported to be, William Johnson of 514 Berlin street has had G. H. Higgins of 1426 Prospect street arrested on the charge of swindling him out of a horse.The specific charge brought against Higgins is larceny of a horse but District Attorney Bosshard when the case was called for hearing this morning offered the receipt in evidence as indicating on its face that the figure "1" had been put before "6" and the syllable "teen" added to "six" making the receipt for $16 instead of $6.Johnson, who alleges that he was swindled, proved to be a highly sensational witness, announcing in a loud voice while on the stand that Higgins and his wife and the whole family had conspired to swindle him out of his horse. The story he told was substantially as follows:Johnson, who is a paralytic, had a horse which he hired out to Higgins for fifty cents a day. Higgins found the animal would not suit his purpose and traded it off for another which was likewise unsatisfactory being afflicted with the heaves like the first horse. Witness told Higgins not to make any more trades but to continue to use the horse as long as he liked at the rate agreed upon fifty cents a day.Things ran along this way for a couple of weeks and witness went to collect his money for the rent of the horse. Higgins wrote out a receipt for six dollars and after securing Johnson's signature sent a boy out ostensibly to get change for a ten dollar bill so he could pay the money owing to witness. The boy did not show up again. Higgins remarked on his long absence and finally sent his visitor off with a dollar after promising to bring the other five down to his house.Witness said his eye sight was poor and he could not read what Higgins had written on he receipt which he signed. He supposed that Higgins was honest and that everything was all right until he took a prospective purchaser of his horse around to Higgins' house and was informed that the animal did not belong to him; that Higgins owned the horse. Johnson was dumfounded but divining that it was a game to beat him out of his horse went to the authorities about it. When the receipt was introduced in court this morning it was found to read as follows:La Crosse, Wis. $16.
Received of W. H. Higgins sixteen dollars in full of all demands up to date on the horse.May 5, 1906. William Johnson.
Mrs. Higgins testified that the transaction of May 5 was for six dollars. She did not seem to know anything about the raising of the receipt to $16, but steadfastly talked about a deal for $6. She claimed that she had paid four dollars on account to Johnson at a previous date which Johnson in turn said he had never seen. Every member of the Higgins family testified that the elder Higgins was buying the horse on the instalment plan, not renting it.The hearing was continued until tomorrow and indications are that Higgins will be bound over to the circuit court for trial.DENGLE

STORY OF REFORMATION THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

"The Story of the Reformation" to be presented at the La Crosse theatre May 10th and 11th was recently produced at the Academy of Music at Kalamazoo, Mich., and the newspapers there say it was "the most pretentious and altogether the most strictly religious entertainment in Kalamazoo in recent years." One of them says that "the prettiest and most touching scene in the entire entertainment is at the opening of Part Four, showing a score or more of nuns and novices leaving a convent, they having been driven out of the sisterhood through the reformation agitation. This group of sweet-faced young women, some in sombre habiliments, and others in gowns of purest white, formed a beautifully contrasting figure. The effect of the whole, vocally and as a picture was entrancing. The entertainment concluded with an allegorical procession, 'The Church Militant' following which, with flags flying and swords flashing, the company sang Luther's great battle hymn, 'Ein Feste Burg.' It may truthfully be said that the play closes in a blaze of glory. Some of the costumes worn by the actors in this picturesque religious drama are quite elaborate, and all are quaint and attractive, making a kaleidoscopic effect when all are assembled on the stage. The raiment worn is said to be an exact replica of the dress of the time of Luther."

The lady soloists who will take part in the nun-scene when presented in La Crosse, will be Miss Lida Lindsay and Miss Minnie May.

"DRY" PARTY PUTS UP A TICKET

Prohibitionists, it appears, believe it is necessary that they get together at a state gathering to formulate a platform of principles and name candidates for the state ticket for recommendation to the voters to support at the primaries.

Yesterday a call for a convention was issued by officers of the Wisconsin Executive Prohibition committee, J. E. Clayton, chairman and W. R. Nethercut, secretary, saying that it is "the unanimous opinion expressed among Prohibitionists everywhere that for the sake of better preserving the Prohibition party organization, arousing enthusiasm among the workers and aiding the voters to make proper selection of candidates for nomination at the primaries, a state convention should be held this year as formerly."

The state convention is called to meet at Madison in the assembly chamber on Wednesday, June 13, at 1:45 p. m., to suggest nominees for the state ticket and to formulate a platform.

All Prohibitionists who have affiliated with the party in the past or those who may intend to affiliate with it in the future, from every county of the state, are cordially invited to attend said state convention and to partake in its proceedings. Chairman and other officers of Prohibition county committees are requested to see to it that their respective counties are represented by a delegation equal at least to two at large for each county and one additional for each twenty-five votes or major fraction thereof cast in their county for Silas C. Swallow for president in 1904.

The executive committee includes J. E. Clayton, Milwaukee, chairman; W. D. Cox, Milwaukee, vice-chairman; William R. Nethercut, Wauwatosa, secretary; Alfred Gabrielson, Eau Claire; Lyle B. Walker, Milwaukee; W. B. Ellis, Elkhorn.

The Woman's Prohibition Club of America will hold its second annual national council the day preceding, June 12, also at Madison. Representatives from all the states are expected to be in attendance.

B. E. Edwards Tells Committees His Company Will Build New Lines on Main and Market Streets

The street railway company will have prepared for introduction at Friday night's council meeting an ordinance providing for extension of the company's lines out Main street to Losey boulevard and out Market to the Catholic cemetery.

No action was taken by the ordinance and railway committees of the council when President B. E. Edwards made this proposition at the meeting last night. The president of the company simply said that he would have an ordinance providing for the improvements prepared for introduction and when the proposition gets back in committee it will be thoroughly threshed out.

It is understood that Mr. Edwards will have incorporated in the ordinance a clause providing that the Market street line shall be run for six months during the year from 7 in the morning, until 6 in the evening, and it is further understood that some such proviso will also be made for the Main street line.

President Edwards had a carefully prepared paper which he read to the committees setting forth the street railway side of the controversy over OSHKOSH, Wis., May 8.—Consul General Richard Guenther of Frankfurt, Germany, who has been spending two months at his home in this city, has received from Secretary of State Root a telegram offering him a transfer to the British port of Cape Town, South Africa, as consul general.

He has sent a message declining the offer, as he considers the post too far from home.

He has made plans to return to Frankfurt this month, sailing from New York May 19. The salary at Cape Town is $6,000 a year, double that paid at Frankfurt.

Found Out

Trained Nurse

vs.

Coffee

No one is in better position to know the value of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Speaking of coffee a nurse of Wilkes Barre, Pa., writes: "I used to drink strong coffee myself and suffered greatly from headaches and indigestion. While on a visit to my brothers I had a good chance to try Postum Food Coffee, for they drank it altogether in place of ordinary coffee. In two weeks, after using Postum, I found I was much benefited and finally my headaches disappeared and also the indigestion."

"Naturally I have since used Postum among my patients, and have noticed a marked benefit where coffee has been left off and Postum used."

"I observed a curious fact about Postum used among mothers. It greatly helps the flow of milk in cases where coffee is inclined to dry it up, and where tea causes nervousness."

"I find trouble in getting servants to make Postum properly. They most always serve it before it has been boiled long enough. It should be boiled 15 or 20 minutes and served with cream, when it is certainly a delicious beverage."

"There's a reason" for Postum.

WRECK AT LAMOILLE WAS BAD ONE

The car containing bags of cement through which a car of merchandise was telescoped in the wreck at LaMoille the other evening was brought to the north side yesterday and the men on the repair track were working at it this morning. The car must have struck with terrific force as the floor beams and the roof of the car of merchandise had just "sandwiched" the roof and about half the bags of cement of the other car. The cement was carried into a car on an adjoining track and with much difficulty the wreck was finally taken apart. Engine No. 892 was a total wreck and had to be hauled to the shops at Minneapolis.

The other engine, No. 872, was brought to the shops at the north side where she was repaired yesterday. One of the engines went beyond her limit at LaMoille and got onto the "frog" and the other engine had to strike her. The emergency brakes had been applied as can be seen by the way the tires are worn.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY SURPRISE

F. E. Benjamin of the north side laundry was very pleasantly surprised and entertained Saturday evening at his home at 719 Berlin street in honor of his sixth wedding anniversary. Dainty refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin were presented with a beautiful picture. All enjoyed the evening immensely.

LONGFELLOW SAID:

"We lead but one life here on earth:
We must make that beautiful,
And to do this, health and elasticity of mind are needful,
And whatever dangers or impedes these must be avoided."

Just a plain bit of good, old-fashioned common sense.
Now apply common sense to your "health of body and mind."
It's largely a question of Food

When "run down" or ailing in any way you may be sure the life forces are not taking up, from your present food, the things required to keep Body and Brain well. It is very sure you will discover help when the food is changed properly. The reason for advocating GRAPE-NUTS is that this food contains the natural Phosphate of Potash obtained from Wheat and Barley from which Nature makes (in combination with Albumen of the food) the gray filling of Brain and Nerve centres.

Build Brain and Nerves up strong and vigorous and you have achieved the power to "make this life beautiful."

There's a Reason.

A DR'S FOOD.

Found a Food That Lifted Him Out of Trouble.

The food experience of a doctor experimenting with himself is worth knowing. He says:

"I had acid dyspepsia since I have any knowledge, from eight years old, I know.

"It worked down from stomach to intestines locating at the umbilicus in enteritis until six years ago the agony every few days was something terrible. I have walked the floor for hours unable to eat or digest if I should eat.

"Medicine would not relieve me at all. Four years ago I began the use of Grape-Nuts and since the first dish I have not had an attack of the old trouble. I take four tablespoonfuls once a day with my supper which is composed only of whole wheat bread and the Grape-Nuts.

"The wonderful part of my case is that I have never had an attack or even any of the dreadful symptoms since the very first meal of Grape-Nuts. Most of my patients know how suddenly and promptly Grape-Nuts cured me and I have prescribed the food with good results in many cases." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Grape-Nuts is regularly prescribed in place of medicine by many physicians for stomach or intestinal trouble, lack of nourishment, brain-fag, nervous prostration. The result usually shows immediate improvement and a speedy complete cure.

Ten days' trial of Grape-Nuts in place of starchy foods works wonders.

LA CROSSE MILITIA WITH REGULARS

Prospects are exceedingly good for the two La Crosse companies of the National Guard having a chance to go into camp with the regulars at Indianapolis, Ind., for a month this summer at the expense of the government.

Word was received in the city today that Governor Davidson had been invited by Acting Secretary of War Oliver to have part of the Wisconsin state troops go to camp with the regular army during the month of September. The letter to Governor Davidson gives no details as to the number of troops from the guard desired, evidently leaving the matter optional with the governor.

It is generally believed by the officers of the guard here that four or five companies will be made up from all of the companies in the state, those who can take time to be away from their business being chosen.

Nelson Gives the People

:: Better Treatment ::

It is part of Nelson's business policy to treat customers generously—accommodate them in every possible way. We are glad to grant favors and extend courtesies to our patrons—glad to do it. Instead of considering—as other stores do—that we have done our part when a customer once opens a credit account, we feel our obligation to grant favors has just begun. Our generous treatment extends over the entire life of each transaction, from the time the account is opened until the last payment is made. We'll provide for your convenience if you open an account here—give you special help when desired. We'll excuse you from making payments when ill or out of work, and give you the best and most liberal treatment in all matters at all times. This generous feature of Nelson's credit plan is what distinguishes it from the others—makes it the credit plan for all people—for you.

Our Store is the Store Out of the High Rent District

A store that gives employment to a number of people and whose motto is: "LIVE AND LET LIVE."

Furthermore, we do not put up two or three articles at a big cut price, but every article sold is at a lesser price than competitors charge.

WHEN YOU FIND MUCK, RAKE IT—AND PROSPER!

We can scarcely imagine what The La Crosse Tribune would find to talk about were it not for "the Gelatt company and the gas and electric combine."—Oshkosh Northwestern.

For the edification of Consul Hick's paper it might be pointed out that sticking to the trail of the St. Louis boulders made Folk governor; cudgeling the crooks made Jerome world-famous; flaying the railroads and corporate blood-suckers made La Follette senator and may make him president; energetic and persistent assault of crookedness made Theodore Roosevelt a "world-beater." And ceaseless exposure of "star chamber" and "to h—l with the people" tactics has made The La Crosse Tribune, in two short years, the most popular paper in this part of the state,—carrying more local advertising than either of its fifty-year-old competitors, and more circulation than either and nearly as much as both combined. The Tribune, truly, has printed a great deal about these things, but the change it has wrought in the camp of the aforesaid "company" and "combine" of pirates is gratifying reward. For, as one of the adherents of the opposing faction remarked the other day:

"The devil of it is the people who read The Tribune believe every d—m word in it; and the class reading 'our' papers believe nothing they see in them."

That, esteemed critic, is because most people, after all, know the truth when they see it.

CHICAGO SUNDAY PAPERS READ HERE.

Every Sunday morning thousands of Chicago, Milwaukee and Minneapolis Sunday papers are read in this city, and in fact reading of the metropolitan papers Sunday is almost so extensive as to be injurious to church attendance.

The Record-Herald, Tribune and American have unusually large Sunday morning sales here.

This condition is explained by the fact that perhaps no where in the world are more splendid Sunday newspapers published than in Chicago. Replete with colored comic and magazine supplements, complete world news and departments to interest every member of the family, the Chicago Sunday morning paper has invaded local fields in the smaller cities so completely as to practically annihilate local Sunday publications. In fact, in many of the smaller cities, Sunday morning issues have been abandoned owing to the great falling off in circulation caused by the invasion of the "big" papers.

It will likely be "Purple" Hawley, if this weather keeps up.

And now "mystery surrounds" the burning of Bob La Follette's barn.

Well, the Northwestern is at least charitable over the Chronicle's bier.

Ten miles of new sidewalks, but no improvement of Cass street. Why?

A defense of big offenders is unlikely to ameliorate or justify one's own "mistakes."

The editors of the Free Press and Sentinel might join the Eagles, and thus end their animosity.

Perhaps the author of "The Jungles" in which the beef trust factories are exposed, is a hireling of the vegetable trust.

If Judge Daniels' claims are supported by law and the fact, La Crosse might get up a Standard investigation of her own.

The Janesville Gazette, one of the strong and prosperous papers of the state also believes in the "Buy it at home" policy.

If those Germania editors do buy the Sentinel we've no doubt Pfister's sigh of relief will all but blow the front out of that hotel.

"Such a splendid business was it" that 99 per cent of the populace did not even know The Sunday Morning Laughing Stock was issued.

Our friend, the notorious Mr. Gelatt, now seeks to insinuate his innocence of ill-doing in the Central deal, by preaching in generalities against muck-raking.

If we had a few more good democrats, and a few more GOOD republicans in congress, perhaps such "aggregations of capital and intelligence" as Standard Oil, would find it necessary to hire two press agents.

Some of the state papers seem to believe—or perhaps are told to say—that it would be better if "too many cooks" kept away from the pot of rate-bill broth. But Chief L. a Follette is certain to be there with the pepper and spice, even if Oilrich does take charge of the cooking.

JUST LIFE

In Society.
A debutante is described as "a girl coming out, head and shoulders first"

Why Worry?

As we wander through Life's valley And the Sun is shining down,
Why should we stop to sorrow
That the leaves are turning brown;
The world's so bright and happy,
And life's so fresh and new—Ah! we have much to live for,
So much good work to do.

Why should we stop to worry
For future cares untold;
If we've been square we need not
If we are square we need not fear
The evening to behold.

"Skidoo" and "23."

"Skidoo" and "23" are just now the most discussed of slang phrases by reason of the uncertainty of their etymology. The latter has variously been explained as being a telegrapher's signal, meaning "clear the wire," as coming from the race track because never more than twenty-two horses are entered in a race; as belonging to the circus because the twenty-third "display" is always the last, and as being borrowed from Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities," Sidney Carton being the twenty-third man to mount the guillotine. "Skidoo" is sometimes supposed to come from skedaddle, meaning to flee precipitately, to send off or away, and sometimes to come from skid, to slide without turning, as "The skids for yours." Since, however, a classical origin has been advanced for "23" it is no more than right that "skidoo" should be similarly honored.

Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities" was written in 1850. Twenty-seven years before Lord Macaulay wrote that splendid "fragment," "The Armada," the last verses of which run:

"Night sank upon the dusky beach
And on the purple sea,
Such night in England ne'er had been
And ne'er again shall be,
From Eddystone to Berwick bounds,
From Lynn to Milford bay,
The time of slumber was as bright
And busy as the day.

For swift to east and swift to west
The ghastly war flame spread,
High on Saint Michael's mound it shone;
It shone on Beachy head,
Far on the deep the Spaniards saw,
Along each southern shore,
Cape beyond cape, in endless range,
Those twinkling points of fire.

And on and on, without a pause,
Un-tired they bounded still;
All night from tower to tower they sprang;
They sprang from hill to hill;

Till the proud peak unfurled the flag
O'er Darwin's rocky dale;
Till, like volcanoes, flared to heaven
The stormy hills of Wales;

Till twelve fair counties saw the blaze
On Malvern's lonely height;
Till streamed in crimson on the wind
The Wrekin's crest of light;

Till broad and fierce the star came forth
On Ely's stately fane,
And tower and hamlet rose in arms
O'er all the boundless plain;

Till Belvoir's lordly terraces the sign
To Lincoln sent;
And Lincoln sped the message on O'er the wide vale of Trent;

Till Skiddaw saw the fire that burned
On Gaunt's embattled pile
And the red glare of Skiddaw roused
The burghers of Carlisle!"

Carlisle is the most northern of the cities on the west coast of England. By the time the warning reached her from Skiddaw the hope of success for the Armada was gone, and very shortly thereafter it was "23" for the great Spanish fleet.

A FACT PROVEN.
Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time. It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ, which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the germ, you remove the effect."

drunkards, paupers, and beggars for the sober industrious, respectable part of the community to support. My liquors will excite riot, robbery and bloodshed.

"They will diminish your comforts, increase your expenses and shorten your life. I shall confidently recommend them as users to multiply fatal accidents and incurable diseases.

Must Support His Family.

"They will deprive some of life, others of reason, many of character and all of peace. They will make fathers fends, wives widows, children orphans and all poor. I will train your sons in infidelity, dissipation, ignorance, lewdness and every other vice. I will corrupt the ministers of religion, obstruct the gospel, defile the church and cause as much temporal and eternal death as I can. I will thus accommodate the public—it may be at the loss of my never-dying soul. But I have a family to support, the business pays and the public encourage it.

"I have paid my license and the traffic is lawful, and if I don't sell it somebody will. I know the bible says: 'Thou shalt not kill, no drunkard shall enter the kingdom of heaven,' and I do not expect the drunkard maker to fare any better, but I want an easy living and I have resolved to gather the wages of iniquity and fatten on the ruin of my species.

Resolves to Do Business.

"I shall, therefore, carry on my business with energy and do my best to diminish the wealth of the nation and endanger the safety of the state. As my business flourishes in proportion to your sensibility and ignorance I will do my best to prevent moral purity and intellectual growth.

"Should you doubt my ability I refer you to the pawnshops, the poor-house, the police court, the hospital, the insane asylum, the penitentiary and the gallows, where you will find many of my best customers have gone. A sight of them will convince you that I do what I say.

"Allow me to inform you that you are fools and that I am an honest saloon keeper."

SLAPPING "SASSY"
BOY COST $7.54

Unless she is able to raise $7.54 Mrs. Ella Dearman will have to spend ten days in the county jail for striking a fourteen-year-old boy named Russell Taylor.

The Taylors and Dearmans were staying at the same house. Mrs. Dearman asked the Taylor boy to look after her little son and see that he did not get onto the railroad track.

"I wouldn't do it if he got cut in two," the youngster retorted.

This so angered Mrs. Dearman that she struck the youngster with sufficient force to knock him down in the mud. The father of the lad remonstrated with Mrs. Dearman but the latter was not repentant and said she would do it again under similar conditions.

Mrs. Dearman's arrest followed. Refusing to plead guilty and get off with a light fine she demanded a hearing and added a burden of $6.54 to a fine of one dollar. At the time of going to press she had not raised the money.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS

Senate and House in Brief.

Washington, May 8.—The senate spent the day on the rate bill, adopting one amendment prohibiting the granting of passes or rebates on passenger traffic, except as to persons employed by the railway, officers, ministers of religion or charity patients, etc. The amendment to include private cars in the definition of common carriers was defeated. Elkins' amendment prohibiting common carriers from producing or selling any commodity in competition with shippers was pending at adjournment. An executive session was held.

The house did a lot of business after applauding Speaker Cannon as he came in, the day being the 70th anniversary of his birth. Williams of Mississippi kept up his filibuster in behalf of the statehood bill, but a quorum made the filibuster of no avail. Among the bills passed were the following: Authorizing wharves, etc., in Lake Michigan adjoining certain lands in Lake county, Ind.; to withhold for sale a portion of the Fort Brady military reservation at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.; to provide for the settlement of the government claim beyond Michigan for St. Mary's Falls ship canal money.

Assassin Was Disguised.

Moscow, May 8.—It turns out that the man who attempted to assassinate Governor General Denbasoff was a revolutionist disguised as a naval officer, which enabled him to approach the palace without creating suspicion. He carried the bomb in a candy box and hid a false passport, in which his name was given as Metz, which proved his connection with the three revolutionists who were killed by the explosion of a bomb in their room on Saturday last, that being the name under which the apartment occupied by the revolutionists was rented.

Is This Another Combine?

S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD

The purifying action and curative properties of this great remedy have made "S. S. S. For the Blood" a household name, and thousands who are today enjoying perfect health owe their recovery from blood or skin diseases to this universally used blood medicine. S. S. S. is made entirely from roots, herbs and barks which possess not only cleansing and healing ingredients, but building-up and strengthening properties to keep the blood in perfect order. No one can be well when the blood is impure; they lack the energy and strength that is natural with health, the complexion becomes pale and sallow, the vitality is weakened and they suffer from a general broken down condition. When the waste or refuse matter, which nature intends shall be thrown off, is left in the system because of a sluggish, torpid condition of the expelling members, it is absorbed into the blood, making this vital stream weak, sour and acid, and its condition is manifested by boils, pimples, rashes, blotches and other eruptions of the skin. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes every particle of blood taint or poison of every character, makes the blood fresh and strong and gives energy to the entire body. When the blood has been cleansed by S. S. S. all skin diseases and eruptions pass away and the smooth, clear skin, glowing with health, shows that the body is being nourished by rich, pure blood. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood disorders, and for their cure nothing equals S. S. S. It does not injuriously affect the most delicate parts of the body and can be taken with perfect safety by old or young. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired without charge.

ABDUCTORS BEFORE COURT QUESTION PROCEEDINGS

The matter of the indictment against Edward and Frank Sager before Judge Searle in the Martin county district court is still in the air and there is every reason to believe that the question as to whether or not the indictments are valid will be submitted to the state supreme court for settlement.

Two points have been raised by the attorneys and the court that appear vital but which to the mind of the average citizen appear incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, says the Fairmount Sentinel in speaking of the matter.

The fact is, the indictment does not show that the parents had legal custody of their child previous to the alleged abduction. Second, the indictment charges that the girl was abducted for the purpose of marriage, but does not state to whom it was intended to marry her.

To the non-legal mind this might be carried a step further, and indictment made to state the age of the man as well as his name—further his choice of political parties and to what church he belongs. A parallel case would also be of a man who purloined a horse, and to make the indictment stick it must state to what kind of a vehicle he intended to hitch the aforesaid horse. That is the way things look to the common people, but not so to lawyers. They spend days arguing such points and talking and speculating and the courts of the land knit their brows until they unravel the sieve of care, and still to them the legal knot is as hard as a boy's shoe string that has gone wrong.

If the matter is certified to the supreme court it must go over and the Sagers can not have a trial or a vindication before next December.

AT THE THEATRES

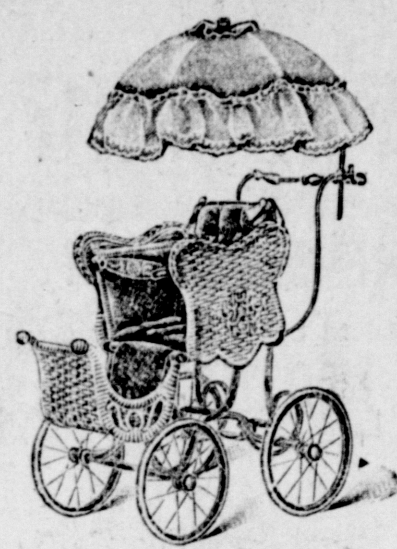

The Bijou program this week is as usual up to the high standard, and crowded houses witnessed the initial performance of the new bill yesterday. Goto the jay juggler is the best in his line ever seen here. Japanese acts have become so stereotyped in the different lines that it is a treat to see Gotos' act. Brown and Wilmot, termed the fashion plates, sing and dance in a very pleasing manner. Their act is neat and very clever. Hyde and Heath deliver a load of hay and introduce good clean comedy and good singing. It is one of the best acts shown at the Bijou this season. Miss Alice Dombay and company has a neat sketch entitled "Her Last Chance," that keeps the audience in roars of laughter. She is supported by a capable company of clever actors and makes a hit. She has a very pleasing stage presence and is a finished actress. Mr. Jack O'Toole is now a fixture at the Bijou. His song for the week, "Where the Morning Glories Twine, Around the Door," is better suited for his voice than last week and he handles it in good style. The new pictures are well worth the price of admission alone, the "Wonderful Discovery" and "Held for Another's Crime" show the wonderful improvement made in moving picture photography. Mr. Shuberg yesterday received a wire informing him that he had the first call on the moving pictures of the San Francisco disaster and that they would be ready for delivery in a few days. The pictures are actual reproductions of the scenes in Frisco the morning of the earthquake and fire the day after.
